

CLIB International Conference 2024

Sponsor the biggest CLIB event of the year – the CIC 2024.

From 21-22 February 2024, we expect 200 international participants from industry, academia and politics from Germany, Europe, and other international partner countries to our two-day conference. Be present with your logo, place an ad in the Abstract Book or book an exhibition booth to be present for an international community that is actively driving the transformation of industry towards sustainability and bioeconomy.

Please send sponsorship requests no later than Friday, 15 December 2023 to Katrin Kriebs (kriebs@clib-cluster.de).
